Proclamation By the Governor of Wisconsin

Respect for a custom long observed, the evident obligation resting upon the people of this State for the degree of health peace and happiness enjoyed, the rich rewards so bountifully bestowed upon the husbandman by a superabundant harvest, and the signal success which has characterized every laudable calling during the past year, demand that we should as individuals and as a people express in a befitting manner our gratitude to that Being who has thus plentifully vouchsafed these blessings

Therefore I, William A. Barstow Governor of the State of Wisconsin do hereby designate and recommend that Thursday the Twenty third day of November next be observed by all citizens of this State as a day of Thanksgiving, and I do further respectfully recommend that the clergy of the various denominations invite their respective congregations to assemble on that day, at their usual places of worship, for the purpose of uniting in praise and thanksgiving.

In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed at Madison, this 11th day of October in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty four
